Cover Picture

Featured on front are William M.(Bill) Gooch and wife Rachel R. (Dodd) Gooch. FGR 2, page 16 of Vol. 1, no. 1. The year and where it was taken is not known. Bill and Rachel were married 29 Jul. 1866 in Lumpkin Co. Ga. They lived for a while in Lumpkin but their later years must have been in Union Co. since they are buried at Mt. Airy Cemetery.

Photo furnished by Ervin Gooch, Suches, Ga., who lives on original Gooch land near Mt. Airy Church.

Dear Member/Subscriber,

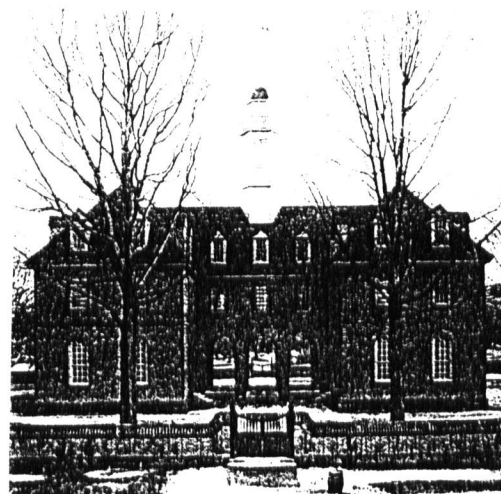

Welcome to volume 2. I am committed to continue with the second volume with about half the subscribers of the first. However I am confident this will change. You are my best source of new members. I know several of you have been responsible for new members. For this support, I am thnakful. TGF has not operated in the black, so I'll just call this my 'golf' and let it go at that.

We (my wife Elsie, and I) have been quite busy this summer. We took a major trip to our Nation's capital, our favorite city outside of Georgia. Also the home of largest museum and the world's largest library; the Smithsonian and The Library of Congress. This was my first trip to actually use the resources of the library. On the way back home we toured Mt. Vernon, the home of our first president, historic Jamestown (site of the first English settlement) and restored Williamsburg, Virginia's colonial capital after Jamestown. We stood in awe while visiting the capitol, the palace and other buildings, knowing our ancestors centuries ago, lived, worked and played at that spot; forging the beginnings of our nation. More specifically for the Gooch descendents, Gov. William Gooch lived there in a palace from 1727-1749 similar to the present restored one. From, The Governor's Palace at Williamsburg, by Graham Hood (page 60), "Following the very brief administration of Lietenant Gov. Hugh Drysdale, Lieutenant Gov. William Gooch arrived to find the Palace, 'an excellent one indeed, all manner of conveniences that you can imagine, an handsome Garden, an orchard ful of Fruit, and a very large Park.' His incumbancy (1727-1749) spanned the second quarter of the century and paralleled the entrenchment and enrichment of polite society in Virginia, the manifest increase in gentility and civility." etc..... The trip was a good one though a bit more expensive than we anticipated. If you plan to go, allow 2 full days for Williamsburg and 1 for Jamestown. The full ticket for 12 and over is $28.00. This allows the ticket holder unlimited visits for 1 full year. If you do the Jamestown visit, you have two options, but be sure to do the one operated by the US Park Service. With this, you go onto the Island which is the original site of old Jamestown. You can drive your car on, and the charge is very nominal, say $5.00 per car. I have a particular interest in the Island restoration since I have a Samuel Jordan (my Mother's line) who was a representative to the first governing body that met in the church at Jamestown as early as 1619. Charles I in 1639 made the General Assembly legitimate, and named Sir Francis Wyatt as Governor.

Hope this gives you an appetite to visit historic America.
Sincerely, Cecil Daniels, Editor

WILLIAM (BILL) AND RACHEL (DOOD) GOOCH CONT'D

The record shows Bill and Rachel were married in Lumpkin Co. 29 Jul. 1866, FGR 2, Vol.1, pg. 16. No doubt that is where Rachel was living. It is not known if Bill moved to Dahlonega or if by that time Rachel's mother had moved the family into Union County. The Dodds were living in Dahlonega in 1860, with Martha, 47 and HOH; John M., 25; Rachel R., 17; Martin A., 15; Nancy J., 11; and Martha A., 9. Mother, and Nancy were living in Union Co., Gaddistown community in 1870 before Nancy married Bill's brother "Matt" Gooch. The 1880 census shows Bill and Rachel living in Gaddistown with children Martin, s13; Henry, s10; Amanda, d8; James, s5; Samuel, s4; and Sarah, d1. By 1910 they were living in Lumpkin Co., listed as Wm M. and Rachel, both age 62. The only child listed was Laura, age 18.

Bill's birth listed as Jun. 1847. With his parents not getting married until Dec. 1850 does leave some room for speculation. His mother Elvira Grizzle was listed in the 1850 Census with John and Sally Grizzle. Also listed was a William 1. In 1850 the relationship to HOH was not given. In the 1860 census Bill was listed as 8 years old. Rachel's age is listed as Nov 1842, so she was about 5 years older than her husband. It was not generally popular for a woman to be much older than her husband, so the woman probably trimmed off a few years when giving census information. In 1910 Rachel was really 67 instead of 62.

Bill and Rachel no doubt lived for a while in the Yahoola community of Lumpkin Co. Three of their children; Sam H.; Joseph (Joe) and Laura (Babe), are buried in Yahoola Bap. cemetery. Several of the Gooches living in Yahoola today are descendants of their son Joe.

Bill and Rachel Gooch
Descendants through grand children.

The editor would like to hear from any in this line. It is my understanding there are no living children of Bill and Rachel, so my appeal is to grandchildren and so on down. Send me a long self-addressed envelope and I will return any FGR, family group record you want and to which you may add information. I would also like copies of any other records, Bible or otherwise which you have.

HELP! If you know information on any of these families, please help. Where I have 'no record' or 'no names' that simply means I do not have the information on those families. The number of children could also be wrong. If you do not have the information yourself, but know someone who can help, tell them or send me their address.
 Thanks. Editor

"I got an A on the Paper"

This was a foot-note on a note I received a few days ago from a college student, Jennifer Colvard. Jennifer had written me earlier for information to help her write a paper for a history course. Using material from TGF and other material, her own research and family pictures, she put together a nice story she and others will enjoy and cherish for generations to come. I wish I could share the whole story but space limitations will not permit. I will, however share a few 'gems' from the paper.

The following shares her feeling about her grandfather, Otis Quillian Gooch who she calls "Paw-Paw".

"I'm the most blessed man I know of. Never been sick a day in my life. Not really sick. Been some days I ain't felt real good. If the house would a got afire, I would have got out of it. I wasn't that sick." These words were spoken by Otis Gooch, commonly known as Ott, to Mr. Virgil Adams, a reporter for the Jackson Herald newspaper, in fall of 1984

Jennifer says, "At 74, my grandfather worked as hard as he did at 25, I'm sure. The above statement was made in an unexpected interview at Hurricane Shoals park in Maysville, Georgia where 'Paw-Paw' ran the grist mill on a volunteer basis, along with his wife, Emilee, two days a week." Jennifer goes on to say, "Among the most respected people I know, my Granny and Paw-Paw both have always lived according to what they believed to be truth-a very strong pair." Jennifer's g.grandfather was Harve Gooch and his parents were William (Bill) Gooch and Rachel Dodd. More later maybe, when the time is right. Thanks Jennifer for your contribution. Editor.

There are many more stories out there. Every family has many good ones. Please send them to me for publication in the newsletter. Ed.

This section is placed, in part, a tribute to my friend (and a friend to many) William Arthur(Bill) Gooch; a long time leader and supporter of the Gooch reunion at Suches, Ga. His parents were Arthur Blakely and Nell(Freeman) Gooch.

His genealogy notebook has been invaluable to TGF, especially with descendants of Jim and Elvira(Grizzle) Gooch.

I am still in need of details on James Martin and 'Viney'(Cochran) Gooch's offspring. For example, I need the marriage date and place for James and Viney. What I would like, is for 1 or more offspring of their children to review the material I have and make corrections as needed. As I have said before, I would love to have copies of any documents you have on any of these families. Vassie Gooch, James and Viney's youngest is still living so far as I know. No-one has informed me of her death. Born in 1903, her 89th birthday was last May.

Let me hear from you. Ed.

The above information from page 2 on to this point is the result of information gathered by, the above mentioned Bill Gooch and the editor's own research of census data. Ed.

The Library of Congress

In my letter I mentioned spending time in the Library of Congress. Well this is no ordinary library. My first trip there was as a tourist a few years ago. Even knowing the immensity before-hand most will still stand awe the first time they visit. No building in DC is any more beautiful than the Jefferson building which is the first one built to house the LC. If you ever tour DC, a visit to the LC is well worth the effort. They have regular tours for the public, and separate film and orientation for those who wish to acquaint themselves with the library so they will be better able to use the facilities.

In this brief space, I will not attempt to give the history of LC, but will say the first books bought was the 6,457 volume library of Thomas Jefferson. Congress paid him $23,950 for his books. Jefferson, age 71 was heavily in debt, so two-third of the money went directly to his debtors. For this he cataloged, crated and transported in some 20 wagons on a six day journey to Washington.

If you wish to learn more about the LC I recommend a book entitled, "The Library of Congress", by: James C. Neagles, and published by Ancestry Publishing P.O. Box 476, Salt Lake City, UT 84110. This is a guide to Genealogical and Historical Research, so many good genealogical libraries should have a copy. The hours for the, The Main, Local History and Genealogy, Microfilm, Newspaper and Current periodical Reading Rooms, are: 8:30 A.M -9:30 P.M. M-F, 8:30 A.M.-5:00 P.M. Sat. and 1-5 P.M. Sun. Other rooms such as Geography and Map, Manuscript and Rare Book Rooms have slightly different hours.

The library is opened for study and research, without charge or special arrangement, to anyone over high school age. The Jefferson building is just directly east of the Capitol on First street. Other main LC buildings are the John Adams Building, just east of the Jefferson, on Second Street, and the James Madison Building, on Independence Ave. SE directly south of the Jefferson Building. The LC also has storage outside the DC area in Maryland. All materials are available to the public, however that in other buildings and that stored in Maryland takes longer to get to you.

I spent my time in the Local History and Genealogy Reading Room. There are some general reference books in that room which you may use without checkout. Other books are chosen by using the card files in which no data has been added for 12 years. The new system is computer storage, which is very friendly and easy to learn. To request a book from the vast storage you must fill-out a form and turn it in to a desk in the room. For this you need a picture i.d. It takes an average of one hour(or more) to get a book in this way. The books are delivered to the desk where you are working. So good planning is necessary to utilize your time wisely. There is always one or more librarians on duty to assist you or answer questions. There are copying machines in the room which will use coins or a special plastic card, which may be purchased in the library. It is much better and cheaper to use the card if you are copying more than one or two pages.

It would be wise to check-out the hours and days closed, especially if on or near a holiday. For example they were closed on Jul.3-4, opened Jul.5th.

One more note. The Jefferson Building is under going restoration, so tours for the public are either reduced or not possible at all. Access to the reading rooms is by the rear door. The sign there may say closed to public or tours form elsewhere. Disregard that sign and enter that door. The guard may want to inspect any bags or brief cases you are carrying. If you are carrying just a pad or notebook you may not be stopped. Just tell them you are going to the reading room. The Local History and Genealogy Reading Room is G-20. From there they can guide or tell you where the other reading rooms are located. The Manuscript Division Reading room has tighter security and control on copying material. Anyone planning to use this part, needs to check out things before going. Generally you can't carry briefcases, purses coats or your own paper etc. into the room. But free checking of your personal items is provided. They will provide you with lined notebook paper or 4 X 8 cards. A limited amount of notes may be taken into the room, but must be approved by a staff member at the reference desk.

HAPPY HUNTING, Editor

The following descendants chart was taken from a publication by: Mrs. George F. Watson (Virginia Gooch Watson). entitled, "The Gooch Family in Williamson County Tennessee". It is only 11 pages long, she has over 3 pages of bibliography. I believe she leaned heavily on Williamson County Historical Society Publications which used much primary sources of info.

Anyone who wishes a copy of the publication may send $1.00 for copying and a long self addressed with 3 first class stamps. She later added about 19 more pages which contains more information on William Gooch, the Rev. War Patriot from Granville/Caswell Co's NC. It also has much information on the Kimbrough (Kimbrow) family. William's dau. Elizabeth m. William Kimbro. Anyone who wishes the additional 19 pages, send $2.00 additional dollars for copying. Her last work on the publication is dated 1982. I plan to write her to see if she has additional material.

GOOCH

1. WILLIAM GOOCH was a resident of Benacre Hall in England, the Gooch ancestral home, was a son of William Gooch b. 1571 and Martha Lawyer.

William Gooch of Benacre Hall married Elizabeth Baspole and had 6 known children.

Two of their children came to the American colonies - Major William Gooch, b. 1626 and d. 26 October 1655 in York County, Va., and Lieut. Col. Henry Gooch. It is from Lt. Col. Henry Gooch that our line descends.

Note: the brother to William Gooch of Benacre Hall was was Thomas Gooch whose son was the Royal Governor of Virginia, Sir William Gooch who married Lady Rebecca Staunton. Their only child, William Gooch, married Eleanor Bowles of Maryland, but William died young with NO heirs. His wife, Eleanor Bowles Gooch later married Warner Lewis & had several children. But there are no heirs to Governor William Gooch of Virginia.

2. LT. COL HENRY GOOCH, born about 1625, died after 1677, prob. 1680, at his homeplace on Pamulkey Valley, Va. Served as High Sherrif of York Co., Va., a number of years and was a member of the Governors Council in 1657 and an officer in the Colonial War. He also fought in Bacon's Rebellion but did not take a leading part, and therefore his fine for doing so was very light.

He married twice:

1st. to Mrs. Millicent Goodwin Kinsey, widow of Robert Kinsey. They married in 1656 in York Co., Va., or by 1656.

They had one son, WILLIAM GOOCH, born in the 1650's.

2nd marriage to Jane Jones, daughter of Rev. Rowland Jones, Sr., and sister to Rev. Rowland Jones, Jr. They had 4 children - Henry, Rowland, Joan and Elizabeth. The above Joan Gooch married Peake and Elizabeth married a Dickerson.

Mrs. Jane Gooch wrote her will 10 Feb. 1701.

3. WILLIAM GOOCH, born in the 1650's, son of Lt. Col. Henry Gooch and wife, Millicent Goodwin Kinsey. Married Ursula Claiborne, daughter of Col. William Claiborne and Elizabeth Wilkes. The will of Ursula's brother William Claiborne in 1705, mentions his sister and her husband by name and their only child, Claiborne Gooch.

William Claiborne remembered them very generously and also remembered other members of the family, nieces, nephews, friends, etc. It has been said that William and Ursula Gooch had another child, William Gooch, but it is doubtful because had the child been living in 1705, Ursula's brother would have mentioned them in his will since he remembered all other family members and Ursula's one child, Claiborne.

4. CLAIBORNE GOOCH, born about 1682, died after 1748, about 1750, was the ONLY PROVEN CHILD OF WILLIAM AND URSULA GOOCH.

Claiborne married a Thompson girl, and had a son, Claiborne Gooch and other possible sons were: William, Thomas, and a Rowland who recd. the father's Claiborne land on Pamulkey River.

5. CLAIBORNE GOOCH (no.2) born 1707, died about 1775.
6. WILLIAM GOOCH of Caswell Co., N.C. & Rev. War Patriot, born about 1725 in Hanover Co., Va., died 1802 in Caswell, Co., N.N.

CLAIBORNE GOOCH (no,3) born about 1730 or 1735, died about 1810. He had the ferry in 1792 on the Pamulkey River.

These two were probably brothers.

WILLIAM GOOCH OF Caswell Co., N.C. had 12 children, 7 of whom came to Tennessee. One of his children was named Claiborne Gooch, for his ancestor, and he in turn had a namesake in Tennessee. Nathaniel named his son John Claiborne Gooch who became a doctor and built "Goochland" in Smyrna, Tenn.

The Claiborne name has continued in every generation, both with the male Gooch line and the daughters naming children with the name Claiborne. There are 8 John Claiborne Gooche's since William Gooch of Caswell Co., N.C. not all in a direct line. Also, in nearly all generations, the first child was named William (in the early generations).

Note; Millicent Goodwin (Goodwyn) Kinsey (widow of Robert Kinsey) and wife of Lt. Col, Henry Gooch, was of one of the leading families of York Co., Va. She was the sister of Major James Goodwin who was magistrate of York Co., served as burgess from York Co., and as Speaker of the House of Burgesses. The one son born of Henry and Millicent Gooch was named William, prob. for Col. Henry's deceased brother, Major William Gooch, whose estate Col. Henry was settling at the time of his son's birth.

Ed's note: A firm connection is not made between Lt.Col Henry Gooch and William Gooch of Granville/Caswell Co's NC

THE GOOCH FAMILY IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

by

MRS. GEORGE F. WATSON
Virginia Gooch Watson

THE WILLIAMSON COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY PUBLICATIONS

The same courage and fortitude in those emigrants to America from England prevailed in their descendants in the late 1700's and early 1800's when the Gooch name made its entry into Williamson County, Tennessee.

The Gooch family is centuries old in England, being of the landed gentry, and produced many illustrious figures on both sides of the ocean. The most famous in the colonies was the royal governor of Virginia from 1727 to 1749 (22 years), Sir William Gooch, for whom Goochland County Virginia, was named. Although Sir William Gooch was very prominent in Virginia history, it is to his uncle, Lt. Col. Henry Gooch we turn to to begin this particular Gooch history. Lt. Col. Henry Gooch and his brother, Major William Gooch, came to the colonies prior to 1650 settling in York County, Virginia. Major William Gooch, born in England, was a member of the Virginia Council from 1652 to 1655 when he died at the age of 29 at his home in Yorktown. His brother, Henry, also born in England, served as high sheriff of York County, Virginia, for many years, was a member of the Governor's Council in 1657, an officer in the Colonial Wars, and fought in Bacons rebellion. Lt. Col. Henry married twice, but it is from his first marriage to Millicent Kinsey that it is believed the middle Tennessee family of Gooches descended. Although the link between Lt. Col. Henry Gooch and William Gooch, my earliest proven ancestor in the colonies, has not been established, I believe this link does exist- I just have to find it.

When the colonies took up arms against England to fight for their independence, William Gooch of Hanover County, Virginia, and later Caswell County, North Carolina, enlisted 11 November 1777 for 3 years, as a private in Taylor's Company, 1st North Carolina Battalion and Corp. Hogg's Company, living in the Hillsboro district during the Revolutionary War. It is believed that William Gooch married twice, although his first wife is unknown she is thought to have been a Hart. His second marriage was to Frances Rice. William had a total of 12 children, the seven youngest of whom appear to be the children of Frances Rice. They were:

William Gooch, Jr. m. Mary Fanning 5 Dec. 1798 Caswell Co., N.C., had 10 children; d. Jan. 1832 in Caswell
Co., N.C.

James Gooch, m. Elisabeth Kelly 3 Aug. 1785 in Caswell Co., N.C.; d. after 1826 in Allen Co., Kentucky.

David Gooch, b. 11 April 1763 prob. in Va., d. 21 Sept. 1831 in Williamson Co., Tenn.; m. Jane Williams 19
Dec. 1788 Caswell Co., N.C., had 13 children.

Nathaniel Gooch, b. 10 Oct. 1768 in Va. or Granville Co., N.C., d. 30 Oct. 1841 in Rutherford Co., Tenn.;
m. Martha (Patsey) Tait 7 Dec. 1797, Caswell Co., N.C., had 4 children.

John Claiborn Gooch, d. 9 April 1804 Caswell Co., N.C. never married
Thomas Gooch, b. 12 Dec. 1777 prob. in N.C.; d. 5 Oct. 1817 in Williamson Co., Tenn.; m. Mary Elizabeth Anthony 13 Aug. 1799 Caswell Co., N.C; had 3 children.
Mary Gooch, d. 1824; m. John Sneed 25 March 1765, had 14 children;
moved to South Carolina, then to Mississippi.
Elizabeth Gooch, b. 175?., d. 1826 in Rutherford Co., Tenn.;
m. William Kimbrough, had 4 known boys.
Sarah Gooch, m. William H. Rice 7 Sept., 1795 Caswell Co., N.C.
Ann (Nancy) Gooch, b. about 1758, d. Jan. 1838; m. Jesse Benton in N.C., had 8 children.
Polly (Mary) Gooch, m. Henry Williams 31 Dec. 1799 Caswell Co., N.C.
Cisley Gooch, d. 1803 Caswell Co., N.C.; m. James Burk (Birk)
32 July 1802 Caswell Co., N.C.

William Gooch, the Revolutionary War veteran, d. 22 Dec. 1802 in Caswell Co., N.C., about age 72 or a little older. Seven of his twelve children came to middle Tenn., beginning in the late 1700's and early 1800's. All seven settled in what was then Davidson County, later Williamson and Rutherford counties.

The land that his son, David Gooch, settled was in all three counties, Davidson, Rutherford and Williamson, thus being recorded in the records of all three counties. David's activities ranged mostly in Williamson and Rutherford counties. Even today the David Gooch Cemetery located on the original property has all three county lines meeting in the center of the cemetery. The Kimbrough's land was in both Davidson and Rutherford counties but very close to the Williamson line and to David Gooch. Thus the entire family of Gooches, except Nancy Benton, lived generally in the vicinity of Nolensville, LaVergne, and Smyrna.

Following is a sketch of each of the seven children who came to Middle Tennessee listed in the order in which they settled in middle Tennessee; with the dates that they are believed to have arrived:

- A. Mrs. Elizabeth (Gooch) Kimbrough, 1797
- B. Mrs. Ann (Nancy) Gooch Benton, 1800
- C. Thomas Gooch, 1804
- D. David Gooch, 1805
- E. James Gooch, 1805
- F. Mrs. Polly (Gooch) Williams, 1807
- G. Nathaniel Gooch, 1814

The following material, also extracted from "The Gooch Family in Williamson Co., Tennessee", by: Virginia Gooch Watson.

The earliest of the above to settle in middle Tennessee, was Elizabeth Gooch, along with her husband, William Kimbrough. Purchased land in Dec. 1797.

Their four sons were:

John Kimbro, b. 11 Apr 1771, bought part of a lot in Nashville, Sep. 1797.
William G. (Gooch) Kimbro, b. 13 Dec 1780, died Nov. 1824, m. Lucinda Basye.
Azariah Kimbro, b. 1 Mar. 1783, d. 6 Feb. 1864, m. Nancy Ann Basye
Joseph A. Kimbro, b. 10 Dec. 1790, d. 1 Nov. 1860, m. First Cou. Lucinda
Tait Gooch, dau. of Nathaniel and Martha (Tait) Gooch. Lucinda, b. 24 Mar. 1803
d. 14 Aug. 1867. Lucinda and Joseph had 12 children.

The original William Kimbrough died in 1816 and his wife Elizabeth Gooch Kimbrough died in 1826.

NOTES ON THE PREVIOUS TWO PAGES

First, James Gooch who m. Elisabeth Kelly is the forebearer of the Gooch line which started me on this venture. With the help of Winnie Rampe and others we have gathered some facts, for which, see FGR submitted by Winnie, Vol.1, pg. 69. Winnie presents strong evidence that James' parents are William Gooch page 13, this issue, and Kesiah Hart. It was members of this Hart family who settled in and gave the name to Hart Co. Ga.

James' (above) sister Ann or Nancy Ann who married Jessie Benton must have made a great impression on the next generation because of so many Gooches who used Benton as a middle name and Bentons who used Gooch as a given name. One such individual is John Benton Gooch (FGR page 17), who must be a grand nephew to Ann and Jessie Benton. Going on that theory, then John Benton Gooch must be the grandson of a son of William Gooch of Hanover Va./Caswell NC. We can eliminate James, because he did not name a boy William. John Claiborn, never married, so no known children. That leaves William Jr. who married Mary Fanning in Caswell Co. NC 5 Dec. 1798. They had 10 children, so there is a good chance he named one William. I believe there is census info. that John Benton's father was born in NC. Then there is Thomas who married Mary E. Anthony in Caswell Co. had 3 children, some of which could have been born in NC before going to Tenn. in or about 1804. David Gooch married Jane Williams in 1788, so several of his children could have been born in NC before going to Tenn. about 1805. Then last was Nathaniel Gooch who married Martha Tait 1797 in Caswell Co, and moving to Tenn. about 1814. They had 4 children all of whom could have been born in NC.

Now have I challenged your thinking ? Who has FGR's on the families above, or any of the children and or grandchildren of the Rev. War Patriot William Gooch of Hanover Co. Va./Caswell/Granville Co.s in NC ?

Ann and Jessie Benton were the parents of Thomas Hart Benton, the famous US Senator from MO for 30 years. This is strong evidence that Ann's mother was a Hart. Check your encyclopedia for a sketch on him. Mine, (World Book 1987) gives a nice bit on what he did during his life. Also a grand nephew by the same name, made it into World Book, on his contribution to the early art movement in America.

Robert Durfee's Journal

The following items are related to pages 13-14, but taken from notes by the editor Virginia S. Wood, who edited the original journal of RD a citizen of the Revolutionary Period.

Note 105 ..states, John Gooch Snead (2 Mar. 1777-6 Jan 1808), was the 6th child of John Snead, Jr. and Mary (Gooch) Snead of VA. They had 13 children. At least part of the American Revolution the family lived in NC, but by 1785 moved to Wilkes Co., GA, where John Snead was granted 200 A. of land. Adding later another 500 A. John G. Snead was a resident of GA by 1802 making him eligible to register for the first land lottery of 1805 (as a resident of Glynn Co.). He married sometime prob. between 1801-04 Mrs. Martha McIntosh (d. ca. 1815-18), wid. of Maj. William McIntosh or Mackintosh (1759-1 Dec 1799) the son of Maj. Gen Lachlan McIntosh.etc....etc.....

Note 136 .. states Tillman Snead (11 May 1786-3 May 1875), was 10th of child child of John Snead, Jr. and Mary (Gooch) Snead, and was b. in Wilkes Co.,GA. Records show the family moved to SC about 1788, but returned to GA in 1799 and settled in or near Augusta, Richmond Co. In 1804 ae. 18, Tillman joined his brother John at St. Simons Is. to clerk in the grocery store. etc.....

Note 137 ..states that Susan Poindexter Snead (7 Feb. 1792- Aug 1840), to be the youngest of John Snead, Jr. and Mary (Gooch) Snead children. She was b. in Edgefield Dist. SC. She was 13 years old at the time RD met her on St.Simons Is. She m. in Augusta, GA on 24 June 1821 to John Glass (ca 1794-27 June 1878) "formerly of Savannah" by the Rev. James O. Andrew, Methodist minister. etc..
RD= Robert Durfee.

I have been trying to get use of original papers that are in the hands of Charles Tillman Snead III, some of which were used to edit the Robert Durfee book. It is now easy to see where Tillman Gooch (Vol.1.No.1 pg.3) got his name, because the Tillman Snead in note 136 and he are first cousins, Tillman.Snead being an est. 12 to 14 years older.

To order the book: "Robert Durfee's Journal", send $29.95 plus $2.25 post. to: Virginia S. Wood, 2030 F. Street NW #601, Washington, DC 20006

I have a ordered a copy and will share whatever info. is pertinent to TGF. Editor.

Other Biographical Notes of Interest (Anecdotes, Education, Occupation, Military, etc.): Rowland Gooch first appeared on record in Louisa County, VA, when he witnessed a deed, which was for land "on north side of Goldmine Creek and joining Rowland Gooches," dated 28 Sept 1758. Trinity Parish Tithable Lists, 1767-1786, show that Rowland Gooch owned 150 acres of land in Louisa Co., VA. The Tithable List also shows the names of his sons when they became 16 years of age. *Virginia genealogies indicate that Rowland Gooch was probably a son of Claiborne Gooch, who was the eldest son of William Gooch/Ursula Claiborne. This has not been proved. William Gooch was the son of Lt. Col. Henry Gooch/Millicent Kinsey, and the stepson of Jane Jones Gooch, who was Henry Gooch's 2nd wife. Jane Jones was the daughter of Rowland Jones, Sr., and sister of Rowland Jones, Jr. Both Rowland Jones were ministers in the Church of England.
